Dissatisfaction at the existing situation in Rumania is reported to be growing among leading personalities of the Rumanian Workers Party. The situation of one Gorlov, who was responsible for maintaining the secret courier system between Moscow and Bucharest and employed the confidence of high party officials, has deteriorated because of his attempts to aid his parents in Bessarabia. An attempt to secure the assistance of the Soviet Embassy to transmit funds to his parents has brought him under suspicion. During his trips to the USSR Gorlov was able to make only one clandestine visit to his parents home in Chisinău.
